1. Introduction

- 1.1. This Privacy Notice sets out the obligations of VIR2UE Communications LTD, a company registered in the United Kingdom under number 08763268, whose registered office is at 12 Gateway Mews, Bounds Green, London, N11 2UT, hereinafter known as the “Company”; regarding Data protection and the rights of every person, “data subjects”; in respect of their personal data under Data Protection Law, all legislation and regulations in force from time to time regulating the use of personal data and the privacy of electronic communications including, but not limited to, EU Regulation 2016/679 General Data Protection Regulation, “GDPR”, the Data Protection Act 2018, and any successor legislation or other directly applicable EU regulation relating to data protection and privacy for as long as, and to the extent that, EU law has legal effect in the UK.
- 1.2. The company understands that your privacy is important to you and that you care about how your personal data is used.
- 1.3. We respect and value the privacy of all our customers and contacts; and will only collect and use personal data in ways that are described here, and in a way that is consistent with our obligations and your rights under the law.
- 1.4. This Privacy Information explains how we use your personal data, how it is collected, how it is held, and how it is processed. It also explains your rights under the law relating to your personal data.

2. What is, Personal Data?

- 2.1. Personal data is defined by the General Data Protection Regulation, EU Regulation 2016/679, the “GDPR” and the Data Protection Act 2018, collectively, “the Data Protection Legislation”, as ‘any information relating to an identifiable person who can be directly or indirectly identified, by reference to an identifier’.
- 2.2. Personal data is, in simpler terms, any information about you that enables you to be identified. Personal data covers obvious information such as your name and contact details, but it also covers less obvious information such as identification numbers, electronic location data, and other online identifiers.
- 2.3. The personal data that we use is set out in Part 4, below.

3. What Are Your Rights?

- 3.1. Under the Data Protection Legislation, you have the following rights, which we will always work to uphold:
 - 3.1.1. The right to be informed about our collection and use of your personal data. This Privacy Notice should tell you everything you need to know, but you can always contact us to find out more or to ask any questions using the details in Part 12.
 - 3.1.2. The right to access the personal data we hold about you. Part 10 will tell you how to do this.
 - 3.1.3. The right to have your personal data rectified if any of your personal data held by us is inaccurate or incomplete. Please contact us using the details in Part 12 to find out more.

- 3.1.4. The right to be forgotten, i.e. the right to ask us to delete or otherwise dispose of any of your personal data that we hold. Please contact us using the details in Part 12 to find out more.
 - 3.1.5. The right to restrict, i.e. prevent, the processing of your personal data.
 - 3.1.6. The right to object to us using your personal data for a purpose or purposes.
 - 3.1.7. The right to withdraw consent. This means that, if we are relying on your consent as the legal basis for using your personal data, you are free to withdraw that consent at any time.
 - 3.1.8. The right to data portability. This means that, if you have provided personal data to us directly, we are using it with your consent or for the performance of a contract, and that data is processed using automated means, you can ask us for a copy of that personal data to re-use with another service or business in many cases.
- 3.2. Rights relating to automated decision-making and profiling. Part 5 explains more about how we use your personal data, including any automated decision-making and profiling if performed.
- 3.3. For more information about our use of your personal data or exercising your rights as outlined above, please contact us using the details provided in Part 12.
- 3.4. It is important that your personal data is kept accurate and up to date. If any of the personal data we hold about you changes, please keep us informed if we have that data.
- 3.5. Further information about your rights can also be obtained from the Information Commissioner's Office or your local Citizens Advice Bureau.
- 3.6. If you have any cause for complaint about our use of your personal data, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office. However, we would welcome the opportunity to resolve your concerns ourselves, so please contact us first, using the details in Part 12.

We will always obtain your express opt-in consent before sharing your personal data with third parties for marketing purposes and you will be able to opt-out at any time.
- 5.3. We will only use your personal data for the purposes for which it was originally collected unless we reasonably believe that another purpose is compatible with that or those original purposes and need to use your personal data for that purpose. If we do use your personal data in this way and you wish us to explain how the new purpose is compatible with the original, please contact us using the details in Part 12.
- 5.4. If we need to use your personal data for a purpose that is unrelated to, or incompatible with, the purposes for which it was originally collected, we will inform you and explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.
- 5.5. In some circumstances, where permitted or required by law, we may process your personal data without your knowledge or consent. This will only be done within the bounds of the Data Protection Legislation and your legal rights.

6. How Does the Company Secure Your Data?

- 6.1. To protect your data, we will take appropriate measures that are consistent with applicable data protection and data security laws and regulations, including requiring our service providers to use appropriate measures to protect the confidentiality and security of your data as outline in our Data Protection Policy.
- 6.2. Depending on the state of the art, the costs of the implementation and the nature of the data to be protected, we put in place technical and organizational measures to prevent risks such as unauthorized destruction, loss, alteration, disclosure of or access to your data.

7. How Long Will the Company Keep Your Personal Data?

- 7.1. We will not keep your personal data for any longer than is necessary considering the reasons for which it was first collected. Our Retention and Disposal Policy sets out the obligations we adhere to, regarding retention of personal data collected, held, and processed by the Company in accordance with EU Regulation 2016/679 General Data Protection Regulation, “GDPR”.
- 7.2. The primary aim of the Retention and Disposal Policy is to set out limits for the retention of personal data and to ensure that those limits, as well as further data subject rights to erasure, are complied with. By extension, the Retention and Disposal Policy aims to ensure that the Company complies fully with its obligations and the rights of data subjects under the Data Protection Legislation.
- 7.3. Where there is no specific fixed period indicated in the Retention and Disposal Policy, the following factors will be used to determine how long it is kept:

Type of Data	How Long We Keep It

Other Information	3 Years from point of account inactivity. Request for account deletion will be actioned per request and confirmed when completed.

8. How and Where Does the Company Store or Transfer My Personal Data?

- 8.1. We may store or transfer your personal data within the UK. This means that it will be fully protected under the Data Protection Legislation.
- 8.2. We may store or transfer some of your personal data within the European Economic Area, the “EEA”. The EEA consists of all EU member states, plus Norway, Iceland, and Liechtenstein. This means that your personal data will be fully protected under the Data Protection Legislation, GDPR, and to equivalent standards by law.
- 8.3. We may store or transfer some or all your personal data in countries that are not part of the EEA. These are known as “third countries” and may not have data protection laws that are as strong as those in the UK and the EEA. This means that we will take additional steps to ensure that your personal data is treated just as safely and securely as it would be within the UK and under the Data Protection Legislation as follows:
- 8.3.1. Information sent via email will be enclosed in an attachment and encrypted using an appropriate strength. Minimum standard for encryption is AES 256 bit; all

 - 8.3.7. we will check at an appropriate time that the transfer has been successful.
- 8.4. We may share your data within the group of companies of which we are a part. Where this involves the transfer of personal data outside the EEA, our group ensures that personal data is protected by requiring all companies within the group to follow the same rules with respect to personal data usage. These are known as "binding corporate rules".
- 8.4.1. More information on binding corporate rules is available from the European Commission
 - 8.4.2. https://ec.europa.eu/info/law/law-topic/data-protection/data-transfers-outside-eu/binding-corporate-rules_en
- 8.5. The security of your personal data is essential to us, and to protect your data, we take several important measures, including the following:
- 8.5.1. limiting access to your personal data to those employees, agents, contractors, and other third parties with a legitimate need to know and ensuring that they are subject to duties of confidentiality; and
 - 8.5.2. procedures for dealing with data breaches, the accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure of, or access to, your personal data, including notifying you and the Information Commissioner's Office where we are legally required to do so; and
 - 8.5.3. Information sent via email will be enclosed in an attachment and encrypted using an appropriate strength. Minimum standard for encryption is AES 256 bit; all
 - 8.5.4. passwords used will be complex, with at least 8 characters, consisting of alpha and numeric characters with at least one uppercase letter; any
 - 8.5.5. password used to open the attached file will be transferred to the recipient using a different method than e-mail, for example via telephone call to an agreed telephone number or closed letter; all
 - 8.5.6. e-mail message will contain clear instructions on the recipient's responsibilities and instructions on what to do if they are not the correct recipient; the
 - 8.5.7. accompanying message and the filename will not reveal the contents of the encrypted file; we will
 - 8.5.8. check with the recipient that their e-mail system will not filter out or quarantine the transferred file; and
 - 8.5.9. we will check at an appropriate time that the transfer has been successful.

8.6. Further details of how we may store or transfer your personal data, can be found in our Data Handling Policy.

9. Does the Company Share Your Personal Data?

9.1. We will not share any of your personal data with any third parties for any purposes, subject to the following exceptions:

- 9.1.1. If we sell, transfer, or merge parts of our business or assets, your personal data may be transferred to a third party. Any new owner of our business may continue to use your personal data in the same ways that we have used it, as specified in this Privacy Notice.
- 9.1.2. In some limited circumstances, we may be legally required to share certain personal data, which might include yours, if we are involved in legal proceedings or complying with legal obligations, a court order, or the instructions of a government authority.
- 9.1.3. We may share your data with other parties including professional advisors, such as banks, insurance companies, auditors, lawyers, accountants and other professional advisors.
- 9.1.4. We may outsource certain data processing activities to trusted third party service providers to perform functions and provide services to us, such as ICT service providers, consulting providers and shipping providers.
- 9.1.5. We may share your personal data with other companies in our group, including any subsidiaries, holding company and its subsidiaries, for the purposes of:
 - 9.1.6. acting on our behalf, in connection with managing services; and

10. How Can You Access Your Personal Data?

- 10.1. If you want to know what personal data, we have about you, you can ask us for details of that personal data and for a copy of it, where any such personal data is held. This is known as a "subject access request".
- 10.2. All subject access requests should be made in writing and sent to the email or postal addresses shown in Part 12. To make this as easy as possible for you, a Subject Access Request Form is available for you to use. You do not have to use this form, but it is the easiest way to tell us everything we need to know to respond to your request as quickly as possible.
- 10.3. There is not normally any charge for a subject access request. If your request is 'manifestly unfounded or excessive', for example, if you make repetitive requests, a fee may be charged to cover our administrative costs in responding.
- 10.4. We will endeavour to respond to your subject access request within one week and, in any case, not more than one month of receiving it. Normally, we aim to provide a complete response, including a copy of your personal data within that time. In some cases, however, particularly if your request is more complex, more time may be required up to a maximum of three months from the date we receive your request. You will be kept fully informed of our progress.

11. What Are Your Responsibilities?

- 11.1. We would like to remind you that it is your responsibility to ensure, to the best of your knowledge, that the data you provide us with, is accurate, complete and up to date.

- 11.2. Furthermore, if you share with us data of other people, it is your responsibility to collect such data in compliance with local legal requirements. For instance, you should inform such other people, whose data you provide to us, about the content of this Privacy Notice and obtain their consent.

12. How Do You Contact the Company?
